

Please do not weaken Indiana's law on telephone privacy. Spending time with family is limited these days and interruptions from unwanted phone callers disrupts this precious family time.